We are excited to announce that Scott Canter has joined our team as the anchor of Academic Answers -Dallas.

Scott has accepted the role of Managing Partner and Lead Educational Consultant for our Dallas office, established in 2006. He will be instrumental in the extension of our full service approach to assisting families. With Scott as part of our team, we will continue hiring expert professionals to provide special needs and therapeutic placement, college planning, boarding and day school guidance, psycho-educational assessments and transition/aftercare planning services.

Please join us in welcoming Scott to Academic Answers. He can be reached at our Dallas office at 214-559-0230 or by email at scanter@academic-answers.com

Scott Canter has over 20 years experience helping families with underachieving students. In 1987 Scott began working with at-risk teenagers as a counselor and teacher at the CEDU School. In 1995 Scott joined the faculty of Hidden Lake Academy as Director of Admissions. He then served Aspen Achievement Academy and Aspen Ranch in admissions prior to becoming Director of Admissions at the Second Nature Wilderness Program in 1999. Since then Scott served as National Director of Admissions for Aspen Education Group's Outdoor Division, supervising the admissions offices of 10 outdoor behavioral healthcare programs. Scott's expertise provides families with an unmatched knowledge and understanding of how special needs schools and treatment programs work to help at-risk youth. A husband and father raising three children, Scott is passionately committed to assisting parents with struggling youth in reuniting their families.

Academic Answers provides comprehensive educational consulting services for students and parents. We support families in college planning, finding day or boarding schools, identifying therapeutic programs, crisis interventions and offer services for academic success, such as assessments, tutoring and test preparation. Our educational consulting firm stands out from others by our team approach in providing service and by the experience of our professionals. Academic Answers has established a reputation for its thoroughness, professionalism, attention to detail and always putting our clients first. To speak with one of our educational professionals, call 512-306-8567 (Austin Office) or 214-559-0230 (Dallas Office).
